Dear Mr. Largent:

In materials the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) distributed around the time it adopted its “network neutrality” rules, as well as in subsequent public fora, the agency claims that industry supports the order. Please respond to the following questions no later than close of business March 7, 2011:

1. Do you believe the rules were necessary?
2. Do you believe it is equitable that the rules apply to you but not the web companies you compete with?
3. Do you believe the order provides certainty?
4. Do you believe the order will help the economy?
5. Do you believe the order will create a significant net increase in jobs?
6. Do you believe the order will encourage your members to invest to expand broadband availability or otherwise promote broadband deployment?
7. Do you support the FCC order or was it just better than the FCC’s other proposals?

Regulation of the Internet and the impact of these regulations on the economy, jobs, innovation, and the American people are of critical concern to this committee. We look forward

Letter to Mr. Steve Largent
